In a few days we will be off to Durban, South Africa, where we will be relieving Missionaries Brent and Sheila Moeller. We are very excited about this new opportunity to serve!

Durban is a city of over 3 million people located on the east coast of South Africa. It has a diverse population with around 60% black, 25% Indian, and 15% white. We will be going there in their winter season, with temperatures hovering around 75 degrees. It is the #1 port city in the country and attracts a lot of tourists. It should be a fascinating place!

As far as the work that we will be doing there, we will fill you in in later updates, but pray that God would open many doors for us to be fruitful. As always, we will seek to strengthen and encourage the believers there in the absence of their missionaries. We are very glad that the Moellers are getting 'a break' as they have gone through many difficult trials of late. Just the work of being foreign missionaries is hard enough!

For PRAISE & PRAYER:

* In our brief time in North America, we have covered a lot of ground (about 3,000 miles to be exact). We started in Phoenix, where we headed north in a 2004 Jeep that was donated to us by a relative. We drove to our sending church in Clancy, MT, and then on to our daughter's house in Calgary. Then we drove to Salem, OR on the west coast, and finally back to Tacoma, WA. We were able to visit a number of churches and see a lot of beautiful country. Happily, there were no mishaps along the way.

* Please pray for our health and stamina as we face another long journey ahead. I was sharing the Gospel with a young man, an agnostic, the other day (pray for him!) and he was very curious about our lifestyle. He asked if we ever got tired of all the travel. The answer is both 'yes' and 'no'. We love the ministry but the getting there can be hard.

As always, we thank God for your prayers and your faithful support.

Yours in Christ,

Will & Dorothy Rogers
